#1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER — More than one million copies sold! A "brilliant" (Lupita Nyong'o, Time), "poignant" (Entertainment Weekly), "soul-nourishing" (USA Today) memoir about coming of age during the twilight of apartheid — Noah's childhood stories are told with all the hilarity and intellect that characterizes his comedy, while illuminating a dark and brutal period in South Africa's history that must never be forgotten. —Esquire Winner of the Thurber Prize for American Humor and an NAACP Image Award — Named one of the best books of the year by The New York Times, USA Today, San Francisco Chronicle, NPR, Esquire, Newsday, and Booklist Trevor Noah's unlikely path from apartheid South Africa to the desk of The Daily Show began with a criminal act: his birth. Trevor was born to a white Swiss father and a black Xhosa mother at a time when such a union was punishable by five years in prison. Living proof of his parents' indiscretion, Trevor was kept mostly indoors for the earliest years of his life, bound by the extreme and often absurd measures his mother took to hide him from a government that could, at any moment, steal him away. Finally liberated by the end of South Africa's tyrannical white rule, Trevor and his mother set forth on a grand adventure, living openly and freely and embracing the opportunities won by a centuries-long struggle. Born a Crime is the story of a mischievous young boy who grows into a restless young man as he struggles to find himself in a world where he was never supposed to exist. It is also the story of that young man's relationship with his fearless, rebellious, and fervently religious mother—his teammate, a woman determined to save her son from the cycle of poverty, violence, and abuse that would ultimately threaten her own life. The stories collected here are by turns hilarious, dramatic, and deeply affecting. Whether subsisting on caterpillars for dinner during hard times, being thrown from a moving car during an attempted kidnapping, or just trying to survive the life-and-death pitfalls of dating in high school, Trevor illuminates his curious world with an incisive wit and unflinching honesty. His stories weave together to form a moving and searingly funny portrait of a boy making his way through a damaged world in a dangerous time, armed only with a keen sense of humor and a mother's unconventional, unconditional love.

A New York Times Bestseller The host of The Daily Show, Trevor Noah, tells the story of growing up half black, half white in South Africa under and after apartheid in this young readers' adaptation of his bestselling adult memoir Born a Crime: Stories from a South African Childhood. BORN A CRIME IS SOON TO BE A MAJOR MOTION PICTURE STARRING OSCAR WINNER LUPITA NYONG'O Trevor Noah, the funny guy who hosts The Daily Show on Comedy Central, shares his remarkable story of growing up in South Africa with a black South African mother and a white European father at a time when it was against the law for a mixed-race child to exist. But he did exist—and from the beginning, the often-misbehaved Trevor used his keen smarts and humor to navigate a harsh life under a racist government. This fascinating memoir blends drama, comedy, and tragedy to depict the day-to-day trials that turned a boy into a young man. In a country where racism barred blacks from social, educational, and economic opportunity, Trevor surmounted staggering obstacles and created a promising future for himself, thanks to his mom's unwavering love and indomitable will. It's Trevor Noah: Born a Crime not only provides a fascinating and honest perspective on South Africa's racial history, but it will also astound and inspire young readers looking to improve their own lives. "Through the foreign, the familiar, and the funny, Born a Crime is a piercing reminder that every mad life—even yours—could end up a masterpiece." --JASON REYNOLDS, New York Times bestselling author "His mother raised him with an imagination and showed that there were no barriers to whatever he wanted to be. Readers will find this journey through Noah's formative years humorous and exciting."

--BOOKLIST "Startling in its honesty, humor, and humility." --KIRKUS REVIEWS "For readers who will appreciate and understand how a parent's love enabled Noah to become the successful man he is now." --SCHOOL LIBRARY JOURNAL

About 50km outside of Cape Town lies the beautiful town of Stellenbosch, nestled against vineyards and blue mountains that stretch to the sky. Here reside some of South Africa's wealthiest individuals: all male, all Afrikaans and all stinking rich. Johann Rupert, Jannie Mouton, Markus Jooste and Christo Weise, to name a few. Julius Malema refers to them scathingly as "The Stellenbosch Mafia", the very worst example of white monopoly capital. But who really are these mega-wealthy individuals, and what influence do they exert not only on Stellenbosch but more broadly on South African society? Author Pieter du Toit begins by exploring the roots of Stellenbosch, one of the wealthiest towns in South Africa and arguably the cradle of Afrikanerdom. This is the birthplace of apartheid leaders, intellectuals, newspaper empires and more. He then closely examines this "club" of billionaires. Who are they and, crucially, how are they connected? What network of boardroom membership, alliances and family connections exist? Who are the "old guard" and who are the "inkommers", and what about the youngsters desperate to make their mark? He looks at the collapse of Steinhoff: what went wrong, and whether there are other companies at risk of a similar fate. He examines the control these men have over cultural life, including pulling the strings in South Africa rugby.

NOT BORN A CRIME: The True Shocking Story of the Naughtiest Child on Earth "SHUT UP!" Giant uncle commanded. Jennifer was in class when he was lured to his office as if he wanted to send him an errand as he usually does at home. He whipped his back mercilessly but he was too strong and stubborn to cry. The principal, staff, and teachers rushed out of their offices while the students peeped through the windows to watch what was happening. She pleaded with giant uncle as blood stains his red and white school uniform, but he continued walking to the classroom as he kept flogging him while saying he's a stubborn child, then the cane vanished on his body. While in class, Jennifer stared at him in pity but couldn't say a word. Could there a secret love agenda in her heart? Or is he still resentful of what she did to him some time ago? It was a disaster to recall. But why would she grab this * and tried to rape him at the market after all she did to him? Is it because it's big? Or is it love? Good, bad, naughty and ugly things happened. And for a second, you'd wonder if life is truly unfair or fair with him and his parents. The crazy childhood journey of how he was a nice guy in Africa and women rejected him, but became a bad boy in Singapore, Asia, and women loved him, then finally became a beast of no nation after he found a secret no one told him about women, life, education, and sex. This book is simply described with the acronym: THE DRAMAS which means: Trouble Hurt Eroticà Dreams Romance Action Marriage Affection Success. His life unfolds in staccato rhythm and crescendos like African music and its dexterity to surge cuts across continents. Boundaries were broken, people were offended. And risks were as sweet as pains. Who doesn't love pain or poverty? They're precious gifts to humanity for those with foresight and not willing to lose sight of their ambitions and future's aspirations. Starting from the bottom, escaping death, falling in love, making love, keeping love and being successful are some of the best stories anyone could ever tell. It's better you drop this book now than continue reading. You'll be offended along the line. Be warned! This is a true story of a naughty, poor, skinny and stubborn African child from a small village called Kalima. He had big dreams and at age 10, he told his mom his dreams, but she and his dad had different plans for him. He was not intelligent, but was street-smart and technically endowed until the following happened -- The Stubborn Dreamer. He was and still is, the naughtiest child in the world. A very stubborn and troublesome kid, but with gifts to excel in whatever he lays his hands on. He loves to fight in school and off school as a kid. It's his hobby. A girl on skirt spreads her legs wide without panties while they were playing and he saw something in-between her legs. He was curious, so he did this...read on and watch the full story unfold. The stubborn and naughty journey of an African child and how he wrote a love letter to a girl, Jennifer, his classmate, and what happened next when she got the letter will shock you. This is a true story by Steven Kalima as he shares it in his words. Be ready to be entertained, laugh, get pissed off and at the end say, "What? Like seriously? How did he do it? Is he okay? Maybe he needs a mental re-evaluation." Note: This is more than a love story. It's a harsh and erotic journey filled with lessons for boys, girls, men, and women. By incorporating and transforming foreign influences, film noir became a uniquely American art form. Though it was overlooked at first, this powerful genre would give Humphrey Bogart and Robert Mitchum career-defining roles, fuel Joan Crawford's middle-age comeback, and set the stage for the work of Martin Scorsese and Quentin Tarantino. Noir illuminated the dark side of the American dream, but despite its characteristic bleakness, these films are somehow always fun. Film Noir: 75 Years of the Greatest Crime Films revisits 20 of the genre's best, from the first noir The Maltese Falcon to L.A. Confidential. We commence by delving into "Classic Noir," films released between 1941 and 1958 with their angular chiaroscuro and Teutonic angst combined with the influence of pulp and hard-boiled crime fiction. Stunning photography walks us through Shadow of a Doubt, Double Indemnity, Laura, Mildred Pierce, Out of the Past, The Third Man, In a Lonely Place, Niagara, The Night of the Hunter, Touch of Evil and more. Next in our "Neo Noir" section, you will see the transformation of noir from 1967 onward with films like Bonnie and Clyde, Dirty Harry, Chinatown, Taxi Driver, Body Heat, Blood Simple, Blue Velvet, Pulp Fiction and more. Articles about how the genre was born, tabloids and film noir, offscreen noir, and what factors lead film back to black punctuate these spreads. Enter the cinematic world of "doom, fate, fear, and betrayal," as beloved film critic Roger Ebert said, with Film Noir: 75 Years of the Greatest Crime Films.
