pre e post Rinascimento, “travestito da donna” per necessità. Passeranno poi in rassegna figure teatrali, “performer”, attori e cantanti che nei secoli hanno usato il travestimento, anche come arma per palesare la propria identità sessuale. Ai momenti ritenuti più importanti degli studi sulla traduzione, viene dedicata la seconda parte del saggio che si conclude con una traduzione della canzone “Sweet transvestite”, trait d'union con l'argomento della prima parte. Franco Ruggiero, laureato in lingue e in traduzione letteraria, ha pubblicato “L'ebreo e altri stranieri in Inghilterra” (Mef, 2003). Ha tradotto una favola di G. Basile (“Lo cunto de li cunti”, di D. Basile e G.Z. Cavazzoni, 2005), sceneggiature e partecipato a spettacoli teatrali e al film “Mater Natura” (2005).

and early Christian religion * the homosexual appeal of the boy actor on the traditional stage of China, Japan and England * the origins of the dame comedian, the principal boy, the glamour drag artiste and the male impersonator * artists such as David Bowie, Boy George, Charles Ludlam, Dame Edna Everage, Lily Savage, Candy Darling, Julian Clary and the New York Dolls. Lavishly illustrated with unusual and rare pictures, this is the first ever cross-cultural study of theatrical transvestism. It is a must for anyone interested in cross-dressing, theatre, and gender.

Shorts could tackle any topic of interest: an unusual travelogue, a comedy, musical revues, sports, nature or popular vaudeville acts. With the advent of sound-on-film in the mid-to-late 1920s, makers of earlier silent short subjects began experimenting with the short films, using them as a testing ground for the use of sound in feature movies. After the Second World War, and the rising popularity of television, short subject films became far too expensive to produce and they had mostly disappeared from the screens by the late 1950s. This encyclopedia offers comprehensive listings of American short subject films from the 1920s through the 1950s.
