This was Jesus Christ's own method, who for "the sake of the joy that lay before him he endured the cross, despising its shame," (Heb 12: 2). The joy to come gave Jesus the endurance needed to embrace His cross. Also noted in the above quoted Letter to the Hebrews is the acknowledgment that Jesus despised the shame of the cross.

The Joy of Full Surrender — St. Benedict's Abbey

An engaging book with a simplicity and yet digs deep into full surrender. At times this was a four star book for me and then it slipped back into three simply because the concepts seem to repeat and didn't go deeper. This quote was one of my favorites from the book: With God, the more we seem to lose, the more we gain.
